Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC FACE

Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC FACE, the former Vice-Chancellor and President of the University of South Australia has been extensively involved in national education policy groups for more than two decades. She was a member of the Commonwealth Tertiary Education Commission (CTEC) and later of the National Board of Employment, Education and Training (NBEET). She was deputy chair of the Higher Education Council of NBEET.

In 2002 she was a member of the Australian Government's Higher Education Review Reference group.

In 2008 she chaired the Expert Panel which reviewed Higher Education in Australia and recommended a new framework for Higher Education. Its key recommendations have been adopted.

Her other significant roles have included the following:

- foundation Director of the Australian Universities Quality Agency
- President and Chair of IDP Education Australia Limited;
- Treasurer of the International Association of University Presidents ;
- Member of the Board of the Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee;
- Member of the Board of the Australian - American Fulbright Commission;
- President of the Australian College of Educators;
- Chair of the South Australian training and Skills Commission
- Member of the Board of the Business/Higher Education Round Table.

She is currently Interim Chair of the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA); Chair of the Australian Health Workforce Advisory Council (AHWAC); a member of the Education Infrastructure Fund Advisory Board; a member of the Australian National Commission for UNESCO; a Director of SEEK Ltd.; a member of the NSW Partnerships Evaluation Committee; and Chair of VERNET.

On Australia Day 2008 Professor Bradley was made a Companion of the Order of Australia, Australia's highest honour, in recognition of her service to higher education.
